A thoroughly enjoyable time

The college musical Thoroughly Modern Millie is set to wow audiences from June 24.

THOROUGHLY Modern Millie is this year's Guilford Young College musical.

About 40 performers will tell the story of Millie, a young girl in the 1920s who goes to New York to marry for money instead of love.

Millie soon begins to take delight in the flapper lifestyle, but problems arise when she checks into a hotel owned by the leader of a white slavery ring in China.

Michelle Enniss, a Year 11 student at the college's Glenorchy Campus, plays the "pearl lady", and also has a role in the female ensemble.

"With all stage cast having to dance during the musical, the hardest things to learn are all the dance moves," she said.

Michelle is thoroughly enjoying being in the musical, and recommends the experience to future students.

Other cast members include

Eliza Withers as Millie, Tom Pacioneri as Jimmy Smith, Christian Street as Trevor, Emilie McDonnell as Mrs Meers, Eloise Martyn as Muzzy Van Hossmere, Johan Manurung as Ching Ho, Patrick Taskunas as Bun Foo and Lucy Morling as Ruth.

The musical is directed by Patricia Kempa, with Ian Williams the musical director and Angela Barnard the dance co-ordinator.

The cast and crew have been busy recreating the fashions and hairstyles of the 1920s.

All the boys in the cast will get special hairstyles for the show, while two dozen wigs have been donated by the Bayview Grocer in Blackmans Bay for the girls.

Thoroughly Modern Millie will be performed at the Playhouse Theatre, Hobart, at 8pm from June 24-27.

Tickets are on sale now at Centertainment, phone 6234 5998.

PLAY TIME: Guildford Young College students Eliza Withers and Christian Street during rehearsals for Thoroughly Modern Millie.

Soccer field under way

WORK has started on a new soccer pitch at the Bowden St Campus of Guilford Young College at Glenorchy.

FREE WATER: Tanks ready for student use in the new year.

The college has recently installed four big water tanks to catch rainfall from the roof of the Rice Block.

This supply will be used to water the new soccer field which should be ready

This pitch will be a popular venue for local soccer teams to train and play on.

College offers many pathways

GUILFORD Young College is a Catholic co-educational senior secondary college with more than 800 students located on campuses in Bowden St, Glenorchy and Barrack St, Hobart.

Opened in 1995, the college is dedicated to the memory of Archbishop Sir Guilford Young, and continues the proud tradition of Catholic schooling in Hobart, dating back to 1826. The college offers a broad range of subjects suited to both academic and vocational pathways and many sporting and extra-curricular activities.
